

NORTHERN AFRICAN WIRELESS COMMUNICATIONS

Media Information 2018

Introduction

Unlike many other business publications that often have too broad a remit, Northern African Wireless Communications prides itself on offering independent editorial that is tightly focused on the technologies and business of developing wireless communications networks in the region.

Now in its 17th year, Northern African Wireless Communications has proved to be an invaluable reference tool for all those involved in the region's wireless communications industries.

Each issue has a minimum print circulation of 7,000 and the digital version is received by over 3,100 ICT professionals. These targeted readers include management level professionals in the public sector, private industry or in the wireless communications industry itself (such as MNOs and CSPs).

Each reader either influences, specifies or purchases wireless communications equipment, services and infrastructure – including associated consultancy, systems integration, as well as test, measurement and maintenance equipment.

As a result, advertisers can rest assured that their message will reach a targeted base of potential customers who are technology-aware, business-oriented and actively seeking wireless solutions throughout North, East, West and Central Africa.
